VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTION

Established in 1982, the Fairfax Law Foundation (FLF) is the charitable arm of the FBA. The FLF supports local programs to improve the community's access to justice, promotes education regarding the legal system, and offers programs that allow members of the FBA to give back and make a difference in our community. The suggested voluntary contribution of $25 helps to support the work of the Foundation through pro bono services and community based programs. Thank you for your generous tax deductible donation.

GOING GREEN

The Fairfax Bar feels a responsibility to educate through example by "going green". You now will have a choice in how you receive the FBA Bar Journal. We will continue to offer the printed and mailed version, however we would like to give you the option of going paperless by providing the publication through email beginning with the September 2011 issue. Please check the box below to notify us if you wish to "go green" and receive your FBA Bar Journal electronically.
