

ESQSITES123.COM AND FAIRFAX BAR ASSOCIATION REACH AFFINITY AGREEMENT

San Diego, CA. — April, 2009 — EsqSites123.com today announced that The Fairfax Bar Association (Virginia) has selected the company to provide web design and hosting services to its more than 2,000 members. As part of its ongoing effort to provide affordable online access to solo and small firm practitioners, EsqSites123.com will offer discounts on setup fees of twenty five (25%) percent.

The Fairfax Bar Association was originally founded in the 1950's to develop a law library. The Fairfax Bar Association has grown into the largest local bar in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Incorporated in 1976, the association is celebrating its 32nd year serving the Greater Washington DC Metro legal community.

EsqSites123.com is a leading provider of affordable legal web site design and hosting solutions for lawyers. The company's web-based software allows lawyers to market their services on the internet inexpensively. Using EsqSites123.com's web-based software, busy legal professionals can register their domain name and create a web site in under 10 minutes. EsqSites123.com is an American company based in San Diego, CA and founded in 2004.

Since September, 2005 EsqSites123.com has formed affinity relationships with 25 bar associations across the U.S., which represent more than 500,000 attorneys nationwide.

About EsqSites123.com

EsqSites123.com is a leading provider of affordable legal web site design and hosting solutions for lawyers. The company's web based software allows lawyers to market their services on the internet inexpensively. Using EsqSites123.com's web based software, busy legal professionals can register their domain name and create a web site in under 10 minutes. EsqSites123.com is an American company based in San Diego, CA and founded in 2004.

About the Fairfax Bar Association

The Fairfax Bar Association (FBA) is a voluntary professional organization with more than 2,000 attorneys practicing within the 19th Judicial Circuit of Virginia. The FBA and its members work to improve the legal profession, the community in which they live and the administration of justice in society. The Fairfax Bar seeks to serve its members, as well as the community. It is the mission of the Fairfax Bar Association to cultivate professional competence, professional development, professional education, cooperation, collegiality and diversity among its members; facilitate interactions between its members and members of the bench; enhance and foster the public's understanding of the practice of the law and the judicial system by providing public outreach and educational programs; operate a public law library; and, serve as a leading voice of the profession in the Commonwealth of Virginia, all in accordance with the Association's creed.